ECONOMIC IMPACT PAYMENTS

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW!!!
The vast majority of people do not need to take any action. The IRS will calculate and automatically send the economic impact payments to those eligible.

$1,200* FOR INDIVIDUALS  $2,400* FOR MARRIED COUPLES  $500* PER CHILD
(For each eligible child under 17)

Who is Eligible?
U.S. Residents with adjusted gross income up to:
$75,000 for individuals
$112,500 for head of household filers
$150,000 for married couples filing joint returns

• Eligible retirees and recipients of Social Security
• Railroad Retirement, disability or veterans’ benefits
• You do not make enough money to normally file a tax return
• You have no income, or income comes entirely from certain benefit programs, such as Supplemental Security Income benefits

Who is NOT Eligible?
U.S. Residents adjusted gross income is greater than:
$99,000 filing status was single or married filing separately
$136,500 for head of household
$198,000 if your filing status was married filing jointly

• You can be claimed as a dependent on someone’s return

• Nonresident alien
• You filed Form 1040-NR or Form 1040NR-EZ, Form1040-PR or Form 1040-SS for 2019
• Delinquent on child support payments

Retirees who receive either Social Security retirement or Railroad Retirement benefits will also receive payments automatically.

Social Security, Railroad retirees and SSDI who have qualifying children, they can take an additional step to receive $500 per qualifying child.

For security reasons, the IRS plans to mail a letter about the economic impact payment to the taxpayer’s last known address within 15 days after the payment is paid.

Anyone with a tax filing obligation who has not yet filed a tax return for 2018 and 2019 CAP Virtual Tax Preparation is available.
